A

Art Sales – This one is perfect for a kids team. Have students produce great works of art and have a show. Parents and friends buy back their budding artists' masterpieces.

Ask everyone you meet – Even if you have sent out letters, be sure to carry a sponsor/donation form with you so that when you talk to people about March for Babies, you can ask them to donate right then. Take those sheets with you to meetings. When you carry a sponsor/donation form with you, indicate your own contribution at the top. Make sure the top few donations on form are significant. Other people are apt to follow suit; conversely, if you start with a $2 contribution, others may follow suit with $2. Don't prejudge whether people will give. Let them say no or ignore your letter rather than not ask.

Auctions of All Kinds –

- Auction off a prime parking space at work.
- Auction off a half or whole day off from work.
- Auction a picnic lunch.
- Auction desserts, homemade dinners, local art work or other creative and fun items.

B

A "No-Bake Sale" – Coworkers pay so they don't have to bake goodies.

Book Sale – Dust those bookshelves and have a book sale.

"Boss for the Day" – Allow people to bid on being boss for a day – high bid wins.

Bake Sales – Hold a Friday bake sale so employees have treats for the weekend. Ask for items to be wrapped attractively so they could be given as gifts.

"Brown Bag Lunch Day" – Everyone brings their lunch and donates the money they would have spent for lunch to the March for Babies fund.

Blue Jeans for Babies Day- Everyone in the office donates $5 or a set amount to wear blue jeans. Ask your March of Dimes representative for stickers to let everyone know what you are doing.

C

Carpool – for fun and profit.

Clean up – with a neighborhood car wash.

Car Window Washes – Teams can wash car windows at fast food restaurant drive through windows.

Challenges – Challenge another team to raise more than you. Some radio stations may gladly put your challenge on the radio. Challenge by the Boss/Principal – Get the boss to agree that if every team member raises their minimum of $100 that he'll dress up like a pig, shave his beard, sit in the dunking booth, or get a pie in the face, etc.

Change Jar – Keep a change jar in high traffic areas. All change is donated to your team fundraising totals.

Cook Offs

Christmas Trees/Wreath – Ask a local retailer to donate $1 for every tree and wreath sold.

Cake Drawing Every Hour – Here is a fun and tasty on-site fundraising idea. Team members bake different cakes, exchange tickets for a donation and then raffle off the cakes each hour of the designated day.

D

Host a theme Dance or party – Sock hop, beach party, disco, square dance, dance for senior citizens, etc.

Dress Down Day – Ask every employee to contribute to your March for Babies team, and in return they will be allowed to "dress down" on a specified day at work.

Dinner – Hold a dinner. Have your team do a theme dinner. Get a hall donated and have each member of your team prepare part of the meal. Sell tickets and get some entertainment donated.
